<tr>
<td>Apply for study visa</td>
<td>Before travelling to Germany you need to apply to the German embassy in your country for a study visa (this does not apply to EU or EEA nationals). Please visit the embassy website to find out which documents you will need to bring. As a general rule, you will need your passport, proof of finance, letter of acceptance and travel health insurance.</td>

<tr>
<td>Prepare enrolment and transfer the semester fee</td>
<td>You can register in writing or in person. Make sure that you have included all the necessary papers (see letter of acceptance). Please note the deadline for registration (on the letter of acceptance), otherwise your letter of acceptance will not be valid!</td>
<td>Now (see deadline on letter of acceptance!)</td>
<td>☐</td>

<tr>
<td>Look for a place to live in Frankfurt or the surrounding area</td>
<td>It is very difficult to find an affordable apartment or room in Frankfurt. It is best to start looking for somewhere straight away: www.wg-gesucht.de/, www.uni-frankfurt.de/4465772/living, www.studentenwerkfrankfurt.de/wohnen.html. Many students come to Germany several weeks before the start of their course and stay in temporary accommodation (e.g. youth hostel or with friends) and then look for an apartment or room.</td>

<td>☐</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Open bank account</td>
<td>There are banks in Germany which do not charge fees for account management or for other services.</td>
<td></td>
<td>☐</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Take out health insurance</td>
<td>If you need insurance in Germany, please read the information on our website: www.uni-frankfurt.de/44657464/healthinsurance. It is generally advisable to take out the student insurance policy with a statutory health insurance company. To do this, you usually need a postal address in Germany and a German (or European) bank account.</td>
<td></td>
<td>☐</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Register in the admissions office of Goethe-University, if you have not already enrolled in writing</td>
<td>Give the office your new address in Germany, where applicable. One to two weeks after enrolment you can collect your Goethe Card (student identity card) from the Service Point in the Student Service Centre (Campus Westend, PEG building, ground floor). This card is valid as a ticket for public transport (e.g. S-Bahn, suburban trains, buses) in Frankfurt and in the Rhine-Main Region. You will also get the access details for your university account and for your email address.</td>
<td>see deadline (on letter of acceptance!)</td>

3. At start of term – before the University session starts

Attend induction session in your faculty
You can find the dates for your course or faculty in the admissions documents (letter from the faculty) or ask your course advisor (see below) – it is extremely important that you attend this session!
Beginning or middle of October

Sign up for course units / lectures
You will find out how to sign up for the course units at the induction session for your course or faculty. All the course units can be found here: www.uni-frankfurt.de/51174856/Vorlesungsverzeichnis
Beginning of October, in some cases earlier / later

Attend orientation day for international students
Information: b.budzisz@em.uni-frankfurt.de
See flyer! – please register - You will have a general introduction to student life at Goethe University. You will get to know your way around the campus and you will be shown the way to the library and to other important University buildings. You will also have the opportunity to talk to students who are already on a Master degree course: Campus Westend, IG-Farben-Haus, 0.251.
8.10.2015, 10a.m.-5.30 p.m. and 9.10.2015, 10a.m.-3p.m.

Read through the guide for first-year students, course regulations and general examination regulations
Before you start your course, you should have read through the "Wegweiser" guide for first-year students issued by the Central Student Advisory Service, as well as the regulations for your course and the general examination regulations. You will be issued with the "Wegweiser" guide when you collect your Goethe Card. The regulations for your course can be found here: http://www.uni-frankfurt.de/36351994/overview Click on the name of your course, then on the link "Course Regulations".

Approach the relevant advisor, if you have questions about the course
If you have questions about your course or timetable, etc., please see the advisor assigned to your course of study. He or she will be pleased to help you. All the course advisors can be found here: http://www.uni-frankfurt.de/36351994/overview Click on the name of your course, then you will see the course advisors in the middle of the page.

Internationaler Studientreff (IST)
The “Internationaler Studientreff” at the Goethe University in Frankfurt is a contact point for questions regarding orientation at the University, your studies and life in Frankfurt (i.e. accommodation, formalities, leisure activities). There are weekly consultation hours, excursions and monthly international bar meet-ups: www.uni-frankfurt.de/IST If you like to be informed about upcoming events, please write an email to: studientreff.international@uni-frankfurt.de
Weekly office hours

4. At start of term – start of the University session

Attend start of course units
Start of winter semester 2015/16
12.10.2015

Go on the tour of the library
You will need to use the library in the first few weeks of your course in order to borrow reference books. The tours of the library are important because the staff will explain how to look for reference material: www.ub.uni-frankfurt.de/benutzung/literatursuche.html
In the first few weeks of term

Attend parallel courses and workshops, e.g. on study skills, PC skills, German courses
A degree course requires self-discipline, good organisation, helpful study techniques and self-motivation; this also applies to German students. The University runs many parallel courses and workshops - it is best to go early on in order to get some useful tips for your studies. Here are some examples:
- Courses run by the Writing Centre/coaching sessions in writing (e.g. to help with written assignments): www.uni-frankfurt.de/43423905/schreibberatung
- Courses run by the International Study Centre / Language Centre (e.g. German courses, language twinning schemes): www.uni-frankfurt.de/43662553/Fremdsprachen
- Events run by the University Computer Centre (e.g. PC skills): www.uni-frankfurt.de/hrz
- Training sessions in key skills (e.g. time management, presentation skills): www.starkerstart.uni-frankfurt.de/45043283/schluesselkompetenzen
During degree course, especially in the first few semester

The International Office team wishes you all the best for your studies!
